Not Long Now

James Blake

It's red to me
Cuz I don't know any different that you're proud of me
It's red to me
And I don't know any different that you're proud of me
That you're proud of me
But it's blue to know that I'm free to grow and go places you couldn't stay long your energy and song
It's alone to know
And lonely cuz x2
It's alone to know
And lonely cuz
Cuz I don't know any different that you're proud of me
And lonely cuz x2
Cuz i don't know any different that you're proud of me
And lonely cuz
But oh, to know
...
It's red to me
But it's blue to know that I'm free to grow now places you couldn't stay long
