

Is God Real?

Kasey Chambers

I don't know if God is real Does he breathe or does he feel Does he mind when I'm angry Does he even notice me I don't know if God is true
Is he me or is he you Does he hear the words I say
I think I'll ask him anyway So please God I know your so busy
And it seems odd it must make you dizzy
When everybody just wants a little piece a little piece a little piece of you Please Lord I promise I'm not asking for the whole world just a little favour for a lost girl who wants to believe in something something anything at all I don't know if God is here Is he far or is he near Did he bring the flashing floods
Did he bring the one I love I don't know if Gods alive
Is he truth or is he lies Does he hear what I say
I think I'll ask him anyway So please God I know your so busy
And it seems odd it must make you dizzy
When everybody just wants a little piece a little piece a little piece of you Please Lord I promise I'm not asking
for the whole world just a little favour for a lost girl who wants to believe in something something anything at all And I get to ask you
The lines falling unto But God when your lost too
Do you get to pray too Please God I know your so busy
And it seems odd it must make you dizzy
When everybody just wants a little piece a little piece a little piece of you So Please Lord I promise I'm not asking for the whole world just a little favour for a lost girl who wants to believe in something something something something
