

Goodbye World

Sandpeople

(I'm sayin' goodbye world)

OnlyOne:

I'm giving up, even though I'll know they'll be here when the chips are up

If we die the world doesn't give a fuck

Cause killin' the world never meant shit to us

The beings from other planets learn to live with us

If they can't is it them or is it us

Sharks and bloody water I jump in it

I'm grateful for every day the sun's risen

My only fear is my work going unfinished

Somebody witness someone get killed for bus tickets

Ya life could be taken in one instant

But this is just one instance

We worship things we imagine like tall tales

We pledge allegiance to a banner that's star spangled

Beneath the magma of a volcano

I await famine and the archangel

And all I can say is

Chorus (Ilmaculate):

Goodbye world, I'ma miss you

But not as much as you'll miss me

When it's all said and done, the question becomes (what)

Are you afraid to be free (nah)

They sayin' goodbye hearse, if I miss you

More than you miss me

I just find inner peace, within a dream

And let go, I aint afraid to be free

Say goodbye world

Ethic:

And we aim for the summit

Been a long time comin', there's an ache in my stomach

We spend them all, but these days ain't abundant

A wrecking ball, that I take and I run with

When I'm done with it all, and this curtain falls for me

No comfort's takin' if my work is not coursing

Through the blood it's pouring

The bloodletting's upsetting when we see those with no puddles forming

So we trudge on forging a new path to do math and use that morphine
Like it subdues that scorching effect
When there's nobody left to set our corpse free

Mo-B:

They say the good die young, well I got a long time 'fore my time comes
Will I rise with the sun, if I rest in the sunset
I must admit I'm preoccupied by all these notions of judgment
Comparin 'em to Judas Iscariot, sometimes the stick's more motivatin' than the carrot is
I'm judging arrogance, once that dirt covers
Before too long I'll be sporting them earth colors

Chorus (Illmaculate):

Goodbye world, I'ma miss you
But not as much as you'll miss me
When it's all said and done, the question becomes (what)
Are you afraid to be free (nah)
They sayin' goodbye hearse, if I miss you
More than you miss me
I just find inner peace, within a dream
And let go, I ain't afraid to be free
Say goodbye world (world)

Gold:

Off the wall and I'm smilin' for all the wrong reasons
I'm but an odd ball tippin' the scales just to get even
All in all, I'll take my chances and take your hand this evening
So you'll feel no withdrawal til the moment you realize I'm leavin' (huh)
And I won't be back, don't get attached, my last one night stand told me that
So I show love, with a grain of salt but when karma struck
I was like hold up, it ain't my fault
I was conditioned to put up these fences
So on the day of my conviction, they'll have to breakthrough, before they take you
Besides, the look in their eyes is less convincing
When you can see 'em flinching from a bird's eye view
Almost through, with my last will & testament
It's a Russian roulette, and guess who the next contestant is
Let me, tip my glass and ash my herb before I pass
I leave you with these last words

Chorus (Illmaculate):

Goodbye world, I'ma miss you
But not as much as you'll miss me
When it's all said and done, the question becomes (what)
Are you afraid to be free (nah)

They sayin? goodbye hearse, if I miss you
More than you miss me (yea)
I just find inner peace, within a dream
And let go, I aint afraid to be free
Say goodbye world
