In Every Direction (White Sea Remix)

Junip

Still protecting the magic feather
Holding tight to a supporting crutch
Writing scripts on worn out leather
Still waiting on a divine touchTry to ride on waves of activity
In every direction
You're the center and you're always free
In every directionFeeling safe enough to abandon the void
Ban the zero, ban the noise
Quiet sounds picked up and dissected
All faint shadows reflectedTry to ride on waves of activity
In every direction
You're the center and you're always free
In every direction
