Yeah yeah oh oh, oh oh, oh oh You retreat your sticky situation
Don't choose to walk away
You retreat your sticky situation
Don't you choose to walk away, walk away You retreat the sticky situation
Don't you choose to walk away, no
And if you do, these times will come for you
Will come for you, come for you, ooh yeah yeah yeah One two, one two three You're, you're you're giving up what you're thinking
Now you're thinking you were right put up in a
Sticky situation without putting up a fight
Now face to face reflections got you thinking you were wrong
In a sticky situation when you've known it all along 'Cause if I cease now, I'm liable to regret it later
Assist how, up in the air your continence wavers
So what, what, what you gonna do fast as you can
You're thinking back, no, you never had a plan That's when you turn away
And you say you'll be back some other day
And then you run and hide Retreat! Your sticky situation
Retreat! Without any hesitation
Retreat! Your sticky situation
Now, now, now, now, now, now, now, now Go
Rackin' them up, no question that we've played this game before
This sticky situation that we're choosing to ignore
What once was it still is and may forever be
But if ever I don't face it man I'm never gonna see 'Cause if I cease now, I'm liable to regret it later
Assist how, up in the air your continence wavers
So what, what, what you gonna do fast as you can
You're thinking back, no, you never had a plan That's when you turn away
And you say you'll be back some other day
And then you run and hide Retreat! Your sticky situation
Retreat! Without any hesitation
Retreat! Your sticky situation
Now, now, now, now, now, now Retreat! Your sticky situation

Retreat! Without any hesitation
Retreat! Your sticky situation
Now, now, now, now, now, now, now, now
Well here it comes You're giving up what you're thinking
Now you're thinking you were right
In a sticky situation without putting up a fight
But face to face reflections have got you thinking you were wrong
In a sticky situation you've known it all along And what you do with your life is your own
Apart from different things that we're told
All the times we chose to run and hide
All the different things we were afraid would unwind So now you're picking up, picking up, picking up, running away
You're packing up, backing up, packing up another day
Well all the different times we tried to run and hide
All the different things you thought they might find You pack it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up and run
You're picking up, packing up, packing up under the sun
And all the different reasons you chose to run away
Well all those different reasons, now for another day
Hey, hey, hey, hey, oh yeah yeah yeah yeah Retreat! Your sticky situation
Retreat! Without any hesitation
You retreat! Your sticky situation
Now, now, now, now, now, now Retreat! Your sticky situation
Retreat! Without any hesitation
Retreat! Your sticky situation
Now, now, now, now, now, now, now But you run away right now
