

Sixteen Games

C.W.A. Cheeseheads With Attitude

Programs! Get yer Packer programs!

Welcome to Lambeau Field!

Mooooooooooooost

People say their team is always gettingâ€™ better
But we know that strength is related to the cheddar
Keep on drinking milk and eating farm-fresh eggs
For extra big arms, and big strong legs

Ya got sixteen games with no lookinâ€™ back
Ya got the team of all teams in the Green Bay Pack
Hey players dontcha worry, â€™cause we all know
That your head coach rocks, and you guys roll

Put the ball in the air, and points on the board
Green Bay has the lead, but we always want more
Take two brats plain, and two with cheese
Two icy cold beers, and some nachos please!

Ya got sixteen games wearing green and the gold
And we donâ€™t really care if itâ€™s twenty below
The other teamâ€™s gonna crumble, fall to their knees
Welcome back to the land of cheese

Itâ€™s gettinâ€™ pretty cold snowingâ€™ in December
Itâ€™s not the Ice Bowlâ€™ we all remember!
Just like the old days with Vince Lombardi
Green Bayâ€™s on the wayâ€™ another Super Bowl party

Ya got sixteen games and never a doubt
Ya got players in the stands jump inâ€™ straight off the ground
Bring the Weber to the game, and cook in the lot
We got barbecue, beans, chicken, burgers and brats

Sixteen games wearing green and the gold
And we donâ€™t really care if itâ€™s twenty below
The other teamâ€™s gonna crumble, fall to their knees
Welcome back to the land of cheese
