The Atmosphere

Jon Mclaughlin

Before we lose the light of day before our words take their place before the mystery has been erased let's close our eyes Before we are who we'll become before it's all been said and done and the truth I will swear upon fades to lies Let's ignore the end growing near tell me things I wanna hear If we're going down
baby don't tell me now
I just wanna stay high up in the sky flying around we can watch all our fears burning up in the atmosphere tell me why is it hard to believe it will always be you and me?

After we see the morning light after a million sleepless nights after us, after all this time
let's close our eyes
And ignore the end growing near
tell me things I wanna hear
If we're going down
tell me why is it hard to believe
and why is it so hard to believe baby I still believe
it will always be you and me
