

Stay in the House, Carl!

People Corrupting People

They say fortune favors the bold
But when you lose your soul you also lose control
Stalked day and night by eyes so cold
Reload, be bold, and do just what you're told

We live for nothing but tomorrow
And keep our heads amidst the sorrow
We hold no hope for tomorrow
And keep our heads

When they came, they came for us
We took up guns and knives and gathered our guts
And headed out towards the coast
A desert wasteland, concrete pain
Civilization dies in vain and vanity
A tapestry of tragedy
We're all the same in the end
When the gloves come off there's no reason to pretend
We see through you and soon our ammunition will too
There's not much we won't do when we're threatened

I got you in my sights, yeah, you better run!

Run away, but they will find you
So while I still have the breath remind you
We better run while we still can

We hold no hope for tomorrow
And keep our heads

All is gone and all is rust
From every cold grey dawn to every dark dusk
We only keep what we can carry
We keep our heads amidst the sorrow
Our hearts beat till tomorrow
But the dead won't stay buried

So keep pace, my son you better run!

Run away, but they will find you

So while I still have the breath the remind you
We have a long road up ahead
Son, we canâ€™t stay
Theyâ€™ll soon be near us
We better run while we still can
