Fool for You

Eusini

Crazy moon of cold steel
Hanging over my Maryland
Tell me is it all for real
I donâ€™t know where I stand
I donâ€™t have a plan
Would it be a sin to say I think of you?
Would it be a sin, would it be taboo?
I think of you
Whisper wicked whispers
Tell me evil lies
Tell me anything
But let me look in your eyes
I die in your eyes
You may not know it
But you know a fool
The fool you know
Stands before you
You scattered me as I gathered you
So build your silence
I know Iâ€™ll break though
Fool for you, fool for you
Naive are we not?
Thinking what weâ€™ve got
Somehow is gonnaâ€™ last forever
When we know it will not
We know it will not
Seem this remembrance
Is a constant thing
Spawning the stirrings of vengeance
I donâ€™t know what itâ€™ll bring Donâ€™t know what itâ€™ll bring
You may not know it but you know a fool
The fool you know stands before you
You scattered me as I gathered you
So build your silence
I know Iâ€™ll breakthrough
Fool for you, fool for you
I canâ€™t feel the sweet sunshine
I canâ€™t feel the rain

You may not know it but you know a fool
The fool you know stands before you
You scattered me as I gathered you
So build your silence
I know Iâ€™ll breakthrough
Fool for you, fool for you
