Girl for All Seasons

Northern State

it's hard to be a girl these days I'll tell you all the reasons girl, gotta look good in every season just ask yourself this girl, who are you pleasin? staring in the mirror, squeezin and tweezin If I could turn back the hands of time and have a dime for all the hateful thoughts in my mind like- I can't do this and I can't wear that are my hips too big, does my ass look fat? might as well be superman, not a supermodel there ain't nothing you could buy in a fancy bottle that'll ever let you love your own reflection girl, close that magazine with your introspection cause you could feel good winter, spring, and fall and when summer time comes you gonna have it all (gonna have it all)I'll be your girl for all seasons I'll be your girl for all reasons fulfilling all of your needs and I'll be your girl for all pleasin
all the four seasons
all of your needs and stay with your man for all the wrong reasons all of your screamin all of your demons not enough time in the world for my healinggirl, it's a setup and you're meant to fail you'd be better off on a live third rail just a few pass the skin test they don't care about the rest and yo, they mix lies into the cement we drink poison water and spend til we're spent but youth it fades, crumbles, and ferments eyelash curl, this is the first world but vanity don't look good on the girl oh no - so when they line us up for roll call let me make it clear on which side I fall 'cause I'm a full grown woman, once a gifted child and this is Northern State, not Girls Gone Wild!I'll be your girl for all seasons I'll be your girl for all reasons
fulfilling all of your needs and

not enough time in the world for my healing(we can try and we can fall and we can fight to make it better we can try and we can fall and we can fight to make it better we can try and we can fall...)I'll be your girl for all seasons I'll be your girl for all reasons
not enough time in the world for my healingclean up your mess and tired of stressin life and regrets and seeing you less I think I can leave by the end of the year' fight for your right to a life without fear
