

Inside Myself

VAMPS

There's a way no one knows
To a place I might never go
Always there, just for me, promising
If I go on, I don't know what awaits there
There's a way no one knows
Where it leads, I've got no control
A lost dream, made for me, waiting
'Cause I'm afraid there's no way to get back there
Inside myself, you're calling me
"Just let me be and set me free"
My other self takes all control
Will I die? There's a dream I have drawn it exists and yet no one knows
A veiled dream to be free, haunting
How can I know if freedom really waits there?
Inside myself, you're calling me
"Just let me be and set me free"
My other self takes all control
Will I die? I'm on the way I can't foresee
Will I be free? Will you break me?
My other self takes all control
Will I die?
