

Cold

Dave Hollister

Girl you got me caught in a web, stuck, I'm feeling this pressure, (pressure, pressure)
Knowing I ain't ready for love but I still wanna be together, (gether, gether, yeah)
Saying what we got ain't enough you want more than I can give you, (Can't you understand)
Can't believe I'm stressing on us you got me wishing I could change just like the weather Wish I was cold,
(Ugh, huh)
Wish it ain't hurt so much to let go, leave you alone,
Wish I'd of known you scratch your car, you'd carve your name from my heart.
Wish I was cold,
Wish it was easier to walk away even when you beg me to stay,
Losing control,
Wish I could hit the switch and run out the door.
Care anymore
Wish I was cold.
Picking little fights to make you second guess sticking around. (girl you know it)
Hate to admit it, but the way you keep your head is kinda breaking me down.
Don't know how you do this to me. (to me, to me, to me)
And baby I don't expect you to wait for the day that we both on the same page,
But it's a chance that I'm willing to take, And I see the look that's on your face. Wish I was cold, (Ugh, huh)
Wish it ain't hurt so much to let go, leave you alone,
Wish I'd of known you scratch your car, you'd carve your name from my heart.
Wish I was cold,
Wish it was easier to walk away even when you beg me to stay,
Losing control,
Wish I could hit the switch and run out the door.
Care anymore
Wish I was cold.
Did everything that I could just to prove,
How dare you make it hard to be in love,
Going through changes everything I gave up, It's never enough
Don't wanna lose you,
Don't wanna give us away,
Don't wanna see your heart break,
I want us to be okay,
But that's impossible either way,
Whether I go or stay. Wish I was cold, (cold)
Wish it ain't hurt so much to let go, (to let go)
leave you alone,
Wish I'd of known you scratch your car, you'd carve your name from my heart.
Wish I was cold,

Wish it was easier to walk away even when you beg me to stay,

I'm Losing control,

Wish I could hit the switch and run out the door.

Care anymore

Wish I was cold.
