

Fool For Love

The Bombsters

He takes his darlin' with a tender hand.
Gives her a reason to be proud of her man.
He's just a fool for love.
She's a fool to love again. Her love has no condition. It has no pride.
She knows how he's feelin. She keeps him satisfied.
She's just a fool for love,
And he's a fool to love again. But who's the fool who really knows how to treat his woman, and who's the fool who can care about her man.
If he's a fool then the fool will never never love again. So he takes his darlin' with a tender hand.
And she knows how he's feelin. She's proud of her man.
He's just a fool for love
She's a fool to love again
