

People Like Us

The von Trapps

How could I tell you the truth
When I myself don't even have a clue
Of what I feel, of what I want from you
Of what I feel, of what I want from you We are careful in our springtime
We're young in years but we are old in our minds
Perhaps our souls are from some ancient time?
Still looking for what they still can't find And I know that I don't want to risk you
But I don't know of any other way
And we don't have any answers
But we listen when the older people say People like us know better than to trust
We choose to believe and set ourselves free
Love is a dangerous game
Yet all the same I know the only way
Is to be brave, to be unafraid
To live love and life day by day People like us know better than to trust
We choose to believe and let ourselves bleed
Cuz' love is a dangerous game
Yet, all the same, I know the only way
Is to be brave, to be unafraid
To live love and life day by day And you know, no matter how this ends
In my heart I will remain your friend
And If I hurt you it's cause I won't pretend
But I will comprehend and I'll defend you And for those who walk the weary road
Who can't rely on which way the wind will blow
Who face our heart the depths they'll never know
Forgive us if we fear, what we may owe And it's funny how people keep changing
Like the cosmos we're circling around
Sometimes we wind up together
But sometimes we just come undone People like us know better than to trust
We choose to believe and set ourselves free
Cuz' love is a dangerous game
Yet all the same I know the only way
Is to be brave, to be unafraid
To live love and life day by day People like us know better than to trust
We choose to believe and let ourselves bleed
Love is a dangerous game
Yeah, all the same I know the only way
Is to be brave, to be unafraid
To live love and life day by day
