Loves Mistaken

Morgan Page

I couldn't figure, ? tonight and the truth to be tempted
I couldn't save it, tried to ? while the honesty lives inside
I keep burning, I try to figure out which way this is turning
My head is spinning, needs on

Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken
Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken

Overflowing of the words I am a silent moment
I think you know it, cause you got me starting to realize
I'm really moving, trying to figure out a way to get through this
My head is spinning, needs to

Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken
Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken

Now I can see it right, the darkness part over undefined
Being stood still between
Being stood alone to me, but I was so alone

Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken
Maybe our hearts just don't belong to one another baby
Maybe we've got the timing wrong
Maybe this love's mistaken.
