

The Only One (Featuring Lil' Kim)

112

Catch me in the spot, low C's in the drop
About half and ounce, the size of zip lock
Knockin' the new one, one deuce
I wanna introduce me and my old flame
And his name is BruceBut blew my eye when his girl drove by Told me bye then he winked his eyes
I'm too dumb fo' this, too fly to curse
Threw his jacket out first, then bam, hit reverseOh, baby, you need to know
I've been in love
And I've never known love like this
I need to know, just how you feel
Let me know if this love is reall'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever needI'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever needOh, baby I think it's time for us to grow
We've been friends now for far too long
The way you kiss, it turns me on
Let me know if you feel this strongI'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever needI'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever needGive me your love
Don't you know that I, I need your love
I need you here in my life, baby, everydayBaby, please, I'll take good care
I'll take care of your needs
I need you here with mePretend like we're friends

And do our own thing
We can chitty-bang-bang
But let the phone ring
From the first night, knew you wasn't true
Ex-girl came through, she said she miss you
Panties in the bathroom sink, hot pink
What's a girl like me supposed to think?
I'm a bad girl, you shady?
I get shady
To up your old lady
And proposing us to stay still friends
I'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?
Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever need
I'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?
Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever need
I'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?
Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
The only one I'll ever need
I'm tired of wasting time on you
So tell me what you wanna do
Is it another man holding your hand?
Why is this a mystery?
Oh, baby can't you see?
Girl, you're the only one I'll ever want
