

Envy

Bracket

I see myself with nothing to do
Nothing to show for the last year or two
I don have much left that I can proveI try not to dwell on past mistakes
I try not to believe my life been a waste
But it comes to haunt me everydayEnvy fills my mind
Envy takes up all of my precious time
It leaves me with nothing elseI've lost my pride
Jealousy has become part of my life
And everyone else can tell
