

Alright Alright

Chickenfoot

One, two, a-one, two, huh

Here we go

I don't wanna taste your taste in my mouth

And I don't wanna see your face in my space

Yeah, and I don't wanna ride to where you wanna drive me

Yeah, yeah, yeah, with your nine inch nails, you're gonna crucify me

Ah baby, wooh

Alright, alright alright alright alright alright alright

Well, alright alright alright alright alright alright alright

Someone's gotta bring the fire from the mountain, wooh

Faith in holy water, gonna drink it till I'm drownin', uh

Well, she got me runnin' 'round with a pocket full of roses

Yeah, yeah, yeah, check me in, check me out, I think that she'd notice

It's about time, baby, come on

Alright alright alright alright alright alright alright

Yeah, alright alright alright alright alright alright alright

Pick it up, alright (alright) alright (alright) alright

Baby, it's alright, yeah

Well, I fell in love on a Saturday night

By Monday morning, we had our first fight

Got intense, but we're workin' it out

I hate the evil things comin' out of her mouth, yeah

Blue collar liberal, rollin' down the street

Eye contact, lookin' at you, lookin' at me, lookin' at you

What's up, baby? What's goin' on?

Hey, alright

Come on now, uh

Pick it up, pick it up

Pick it up

Alright alright alright alright alright alright alright, oh yeah, baby

Alright alright alright alright alright alright alright, sure enough, give it up

Alright (alright) alright (alright) alright

Baby, it's alright, yeah
Alright alright alright alright alright alright, oh oh oh oh yeah

Oh, everything is alright
Baby, it's alright now
Outta sight (alright)
Come on baby, yeah, yeah, yeah

Baby, it's alright
It's gotta be alright (alright)
(it's alright (Alright)
(Alright) It's alright (Alright)
Everything is alright
Alright alright alright alright alright alright alright
