

Keep Your Head Down

Los Stompers

Never believing, you're living the lie
Shouting and screaming at supper time
Sounds like a Lullaby
You're looking for trouble and your finding a friend
Many lost causes to defend
Itâ€™s enough to make you cry

You say it will all be fine
It sends shivers down my spine
Hand to hand in someone elseâ€™s fight
Maybe all of us will die of fright

Helter Skelter running for the door
As we watch the hand of God get in our way
Shoves us to the floor

You're telling a story, you making a stand
Running in circles like Charlie Chan
You never took the time
Donâ€™t pass go, go straight to jail
Listen to the sirens wail
Everybodyâ€™s looking for a sign
As another one gets cut down in his prime

Helter Skelter running for the door
As we watch the hand of God get in our way
Shoves us to the floor
Everyday another bloody war
Try to keep your head down and your nose clean
There isnâ€™t any more

As another one gets cut down in his prime

Helter Skelter running for the door
As we watch the hand of God get in our way
Shoves us to the floor
Everyday another bloody war
Try to keep your head down and your nose clean
There isnâ€™t any more
