Awolnation

Thank you
For listening again
Or for the first time
Or for the last time
We share this moment
And i am grateful for this
I was born to rage
For my fathers pain
With my brothers style
For my mothers rain
We could use some hope
We must learn to cope
So be good with goodbyes
So be good with goodbyes
Alright now
People
People
Have you heard the good news
There's people
People
They're running just like you
Today
I say
It's all that matters for now
For you
And I
Wooo
So people
People
Make some good ol' love
Well I lost my pride
With this body of mine
In another land
I began to understand
I got love for all your hate
I got lost to find my way
So be good with goodbyes
So be good with good byes
Yeah

Alright now
People
People
Have you heard the good news
There's people
People
They're running just like you

Today
I say
For you
And I
Wooo
So people
People

Make some good ol' love
My knife is a dream
It's a beautiful world
She'll never leave
It's a beautiful world
Her body sits tight
When she's hitchin' a ride
Hey man im sorry
I'm not lookin' to fight
We were born to rage
We're the price of pain
We're a single voice
We're the second choice
We were born to rage

People
People
Have you heard the good news
There's people
People
They're running just like you

Today
I say
For you
And I
Wooo
So people
People
Make some good ol' love

Oh na na na
Ho na na na
Ho na na na
Make some good ol' love
Oh na na na
Ho na na na
Ho na na na
Make some good ol' love
Oh na na na
Ho na na na
Ho na na na
Ho
