

No One Has to Know (feat. Joywave)

RAC

I could wait around for you
If I could turn myself into
A big ol' shady oak tree
And sit outside your room
I feel my limbs are growing
I think I am setting down roots
'Cause no one really gets me
Quite the way you do You're upset, and I'm upset
And no one has to know
If you're upset and I'm upset
We're alone
On opposite ends of the country
Or non contiguous states
We're still within the boundaries of the Milky Way
We took our time for granted
And we poured it down the drain
So we feed ourselves our memories
'Cause we traded each other away
And no one really gets me
Quite the way you do You're upset, and I'm upset
And no one has to know
If you're upset and I'm upset
We're alone
You're upset, and I'm upset
And no one has to know
If you're upset and I'm upset
We're alone
Alone, Alone, Alone
Alone, Alone, Alone
Alone, Alone, Alone I could wait around for you
If I could turn myself into
A big ol' shady oak tree
And sit outside your room
I feel my limbs are growing
I think I am setting down roots 'Cause you're upset, and I'm upset
And no one has to know
If you're upset and I'm upset
We're alone
You're upset, and I'm upset

And no one has to know
If you're upset and I'm upset
We're alone Alone, Alone, Alone
