

Private Hell

Iggy Pop

I have a private hell of excellent quality
I've dwelt there for years playing with my tears
It's tasteful, luxurious and full of sexuality
And though there are tears, I control them with my gears
All in all, I must tell, you well I must tell
You I'm so proud of my private hell
Anger and greed brew and then they stampede
Till I can transmute them into more loot
It's tasteful, luxurious and full of sexuality
And though there are tears, I control them with my gears
All in all, I must tell you
Well I must tell you
I'm so proud of my private hell
I'm so proud of my private hell
