Psycho Bitch

Lesley Roy

Is it fair to say you played me for a fool?
Is it fair to say you used me, that's the truth?
You've been lying all the time and now I'm mad
You drove me to the vodka shots and knocked them backI bet you never thought that I would be a basket case
I'm going crazy 'cause your hooked on someone
And that someone isn't meBet you never thought that I would be a psycho bitch like
The kind of girl that's gonna smash your headlights
No, that someone isn't meIs it fair to say you went and hit the lock?
Do you think that I should say it to the cops?
When they ask me where I was the seventeenth
Should I be like you and say it wasn't me, yeah?I bet you never thought that I would be a basket case
I'm going crazy 'cause your hooked on someone
And that someone isn't meBet you never thought that I would be a psycho bitch like
The kind of girl that's gonna smash your headlights
No, that someone isn't meDoes she do what I don't?
Is she beautiful or
Will she go where I will go?Bet you never thought that I would be a basket case
I'm going crazy 'cause your hooked on someone
And that someone isn't meBet you never thought that I would be a psycho bitch like
The kind of girl that's gonna smash your headlights
No, that someone isn't meBet you never thought that I would be a basket case
I'm going crazy 'cause your hooked on someone
And that someone isn't meBet you never thought that I would be a psycho bitch like
The kind of girl that's gonna smash your head lights
No, that someone isn't me
