Heal This Home

Luminate

It?s the only thing she ever wanted all of her life
To fall in love and be a good wife
They said a vow and she took his name, fifteen years ago today
But now they?re living separate lives in the same old house
They used to be in love, but they?ve forgotten how
It?s been so long, the flame is gone
Their hearts are beating but they?re barely hanging on

When you feel like something?s missing
And your world is crashing down
When the house you?ve built is falling into pieces on the ground
When it feels like there?s no way to fix what?s wrong
Love is strong, and God can heal this home

They used to have dinner by candlelight
They used to hold hands and dance in the moonlight
And like a picture in a frame, they thought that it could stay that way
Yeah, they were living in a world of make believe
And they couldn?t see the cracks growing underneath
But God restores and opens doors to the love, to the life they?re looking for

Sometimes you gotta let go
That?s when love can grow
So let the tears fall down
Oh, in your weakness God is strong
He?s been there all along and He?s holding you right now
