Sarah Jarosz

jacqueline
i see you there
in your pillbox hat
and bright pink dress
won't you
sit and keep me companywalk with me to the water's edge and ain't that far from where the sidewalk endswon't you keep me companyand we'll move on down to the water's edge
move on down
stick my feet in and
feel it cool me down
who do i talk to now?
jacquelinei cried my tears
and they fell on down into your dark and misty bluei'm standing right here next to youthen you shedded your bright pink dress you covered up with a blanket of whitejackie won't you walk with me tonightand we'll move on down
to the water's edge
stick my feet in and
who do i talk to now?
jacquelinemaybe in a little while I'll feel alright maybe in a little while maybe in a little while I'll feel alright maybe in a little whilejacqueline i see you there in your pillbox hat and your bright pink dress
won't you
keep me company
