Killed by Love

JLS

Ooh, these are like the feel of cry
Do you revel in the lights?
Cuz you stole my trust tell me why
You're addicted to goodbye
Tell me why you frontin on love?
Tell me why, tell me why this isn't enough?Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Struck down in your pride
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Not for the first time
Thought I was the one who stop the rain
But you only gonna shut me out again
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Your heart sail the chalk lineOoh, did you fall so deep that you drowned?
Is that why you always want out?
When you get too close you will bail
You're addicted to farewell
Tell me why you frontin on love?
Tell me why, tell me why I'm never enough?Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Struck down in your pride
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Not for the first time
Thought I was the one who stop the rain
But you only gonna shut me out again
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Your heart sail the chalk lineYou and me were only human we get hurt sometimes
I can only take so much before I lose my mind
Guess this a waste of timeMaybe you were shot and killed by love
Struck down in your pride
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Not for the first time
Thought I was the one who stop the rain
But you only gonna shut me out again
Maybe you were shot and killed by love
Your heart sail the chalk line
