All the Pretty Ones

Say Hi

Well you watched the sun
Gazed a star and it won't be long
It won't be long
Before you rust, come try your luck

It's just a plan Kafka said
Well careless driver steps on the brake
Better love the envy that you create
Better watch yourself

Watch yourself
Are you ready or not, maybe let's go
Kick your head back and watch it in slo-mo
For all you pretty ones, ya hum along in oblivion

Afraid to be alone, all made up to be someone
Oh, you pretty ones, fade away and come undone
Got to find a better way, to mold your skin or so they say
That's right

Such lofty hymns, a kiss to the world
And take good care, like you ever cared
It's bittersweet and a kiss goodnight
Elevator to the bright side of life, that's all you know

The story goes
Tightropes walking much tripping on clovers
Dissolution yourself from your brothers
For all you pretty ones, ya hum along in oblivion

Afraid to be alone, you're all made up to be someone
Oh, you pretty ones, you fade away and come undone
You've got to find a better way, to mold your skin or so they say
That's right

Oh that's right
Yeah, are you ready or not, maybe let's go
Kick your head back and watch it in slo-mo
For all you pretty ones, ya hum along in oblivion

Afraid to be alone, all made up to be someone
Oh, you pretty ones, you fade away and come undone
Got to find a better way, to mold your skin or so they say
To mold your skin or so they say

To mold your skin or so they say
That's right
That's right
That's right
