

Smiles On a Mask

A Telemetry

facing off
everyday the same old game field is stacked against you head hangs down in shame decimated once again

it brings you down

smiles on a mask
who do you really know
smiles on a mask
who can you really trust

feel a blow
that stings deep to the soul you listened to promises as all expectation was sold concentrated all in pain

it brings you down

smiles on a mask
who do you really know
smiles on a mask

come to see
face value
was just an act
as a true statue
lurks behind behind a mask

smiles on a mask
who do you really know
smiles on a mask

smiles on a mask
who do you really know
smiles on a mask
