

Eye of the Storm

Necrophobic

[Music: Sidegrd, Ramstedt]

[Lyrics: Sidegrd] I am the warrior

I am bred of sin

I am the wolf within I am the blizzard son

My enemies I tear

I am their utter fear I am the berserker

In the forest I grew

Changed my conscious into two I float between the worlds

I gain might through my pains

In the north I am the ice

In the south I am but flames

Harmageddon, Ragnarok

I'm the eye of the storm

Until nothing remains Show me the sacred powers of Thurs

Show me the path to my cosmic rebirth

Give me a vision, give me a sign

There in the flames my kingdom I'll find [Lead: M.H./S.R.] I search for the balance of fire and ice

From Nifel to Muspell with longing in eyes

I search for the wisdom the one-eyed once gained

Metamorphosis obtained I am the raging wolf

Psychedelic ecstasy

I change and leave my sanity I am the elg warrior

Mystre Lycanthropique

I set the primal in me free I float between the worlds

I gain might through my pains

In the north I am the ice

In the south I am but flames

Harmageddon, Ragnarok

I'm the eye of the storm

Until nothing remains
