After Hours

Pam Tillis

In the after hours
Slowly shifting down
Last call is over
The sign is turned aroundThe chairs are on the tables
The drinks are on the house
The talk is on the level
The truth is coming outLonesome hounds
Hangin' 'round
In the after hours
Slowly shifting downMisery loves company
No need to hurry home
'Cause we're all in this together
We are all in this aloneLonesome hounds
Hangin' 'round
In the after hours
Slowly shifting down
