

Last Chance

Maroon 5

I'm sure that he could give you everything
Stability and diamond rings
All the things I do not have
I understand you can't handle that
But for everything that I lack
I provide something you almost had
Hot flesh that you yearn to grab
Pit of your stomach you're still so sad So oh, what you gonna do.
I'm in love with you
Don't you wanna dance
This might be the last chance
That I get, to love you, oh oh oh Out of sight, not out of mind
You want the world, I'll give you mine
'Cause you're the girl I'll never find
And I'm the boy you left behind
I know you think you're satisfied
And God knows how hard we tried
But if you showed up at my door
I could give you so much more oh Oh, what you gonna do
I'm in love with you
Don't you wanna dance
This may be the last chance
That I get, to love you, oh oh oh Oh, what am I gonna do
I don't have to lose
You're not making sense
This might be the last chance
That you get to love me, oh You sure don't make it easy
To get myself to safety
You tell me that I'm crazy
But you're the one who makes me this way
You call me so impulsive
But that's what makes us so explosive So as I burn these photographs
I wonder if you kept the ones you have
Keep them locked up somewhere safe
Since it's the only place you'll see my face Oh, what you gonna do
I'm in love with you
Why don't you wanna dance
'Cause this might be the last chance
That I get to love you, oh oh oh

Oh, what am I gonna do
I don't like to lose
You're not making sense
'Cause this may be the last chance
That you get to love me, oh This may be the last chance that I get to love you, oh
This may be the last chance that I get to love you, oh oh oh
To love you, oh oh oh
