Day One

Sarah Slean

I put my head back
Where it belongs up there in the clouds
Im spreading love like
A terrorist nowO, what a morning
O, what a day to be alive
Sweet hope is glowing
In your glorious eyesPushing paper ain't enough
I bet you think that youre so tough
But all your green wont mean a thing at allOn day one
Day oneAfter Boy Wonder
After the dream came out of the mines
Bus boys and bankers
Were wiping their eyesBe still my lionheart
A revolution ready to pounce
All passioneers
Up and out of the houseBeauty faked a heart attack
Now I feel it coming back
And all your green won't mean a thing at allOn day one
