Just The Blues

1. I wake up every morning people and take a look at the rising sun
I wake up every morning and take a look at the rising sun Then I realize my babe's gone I missed her last night from holding her in my arm
2. I'm gonner ring up Turner and I try to see if the little girl is over there I'm gonner ring up Turner
and I try to see if the little girl is over there Well I know, I know my baby I know my sweet thing by the cloth she wear 3. She got great big sexy legs and she wear the shoe number three She got great big sexy legs and she wear the shoe number three I got to find, I got to find my sweet thing because her love means everything in this world to me 4.
Since she been gone
You know my life don't seem the same Since she's been gone
I tell you my life don't seem the same People you know it fills my heart with sorrow everytime I hear another man calling my womans name
