Need You More

Samantha Fish

Another barn, another hotel room
I thought maybe you'd be calling soon
These days fly by without you
Nothing's right, but nothing's wrong
My feet keep moving but my miles are drawn
Painfully mistaken my big talk for the truthAnd there's no one left for me to take it out on
Reveling, spin down to the bottom
I pushed you out to the unknown
Traveled hard, take the feeling home
And I need you more than you'll ever know
I know that hopeful troubadour, he gave his all, but they needed more
I know that lonely ain't the lowest thing to be
That ties by fire and compromise, I'm busy chasing my own high
Sometimes when I look in the mirror, it's still a long way outAnd there's no one left for me to take it out on
Reveling, spin down to the bottom
I pushed you out to the unknown
Traveled hard, take the feeling home
And I need you more than you'll ever know
There's no one left for me to take it out on
Reveling, spin down to the bottom
I pushed you out to the unknown
Traveled hard, take the feeling home
And I need you more than you'll ever knowOh, I need you more than you'll ever know
Oh, I need you more than you'll ever know
