

The Cappuccino Song

Tanita Tikaram

The woman smiles, the cafe feels like home to you
And as she glances through the magazine you feel somehow, she's seen you, too[Chorus]

All my life I thought you said

All my life I heard you say

It'll be all right

(All my life)

If you stay for all my life, for all my life As she turns her face I feel unsure, is it foolish to want much more?

And as I place the moments in the frame it's to these, I return again[Chorus]
