She remembered in 1979,
found him on the road playin his harmonica
She was wearin big sunglasses, seein the world through a red light
She could hold him tight

The sunset was quiet on the mountains
she was breathless by the light, blinded by the night
He looked her way and then he said
If you feel what I feel then come with me
CHORUS

There's only 1 thing I can keep alive from him
Theres only 1 thing I can keep alive from him
When she looked back then she knew, he could have been her man 20 years later, he's still the one, he's still the one
She remembered in april 85
On a tragic day, he stole her life away
Like the last roll of a film he left, without a word
Seein the world through a red light
He flew up to the sky

The sunset was quiet on the mountains
she was breathless by the light, blinded by the night
