

For All Time (feat. Corey Latif Williams)

Michael Jackson

Sun comes up on this new morning
Shifting shadows, a songbird sings
And if these words could have kept you happy I'd do anything
And if you feel alone, I'll be your shoulder
With a tender touch, you know so well
Somebody once said, it's the soul that matters
Baby, who can really tell,
When two hearts belong so well
Maybe the walls will tumble
And sun may refuse to shine
When I say, I love you
Baby, you've gotta know
(I don't know)
That's for all time
Baby you gotta know
(I don't know)
That's for all time
Moon shines down on this good evening
One warm kiss in this cold night air
For this good love I'm receiving
I'll go anywhere
Just as long as you are there
And maybe the walls will tumble
Sun may refuse to shine
When I say, I love you
Baby, you've gotta know
That's for all time
(I don't know)
Baby you gotta know
(I don't know)
That's for all time
Oh... Oh, oh, oh...
The sun in me
Oh... Oh, oh, oh...
All these words that young lovers say...
And maybe the walls will crumble
And sun may refuse to shine
When I say, I need you
Baby, you've gotta know
That's for all time
(I don't know)
Baby you gotta know
(I don't know)
That's for all time
Baby, you can never go
Baby, you gotta know

See that you never go
That's for all time
Baby, you never know
(I don't know)
That's for all time...

Songwriters

SHERWOOD, MICHAEL WYNN/PORCARO, STEVEN M. Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>