No One To Blame

Slaves On Dope

Verse 1:
Think fast!
Age old reaction
Five fingers turned into a fist
And it's loud!
Over and over
Frustration just walked away
You're always ahead of the action
Process all the things you ignore
Step back and begin ascension
Onto the killing floor

Pre Chorus:
Immediately you will disagree
Either way it makes no difference to me

Chorus:
And you've got no one else to blame
Except yourself
You put your hand into the flame
Hurt yourself

Verse 2:
Sit Down!
And search for something
But it keeps eluding you
Your past!
Has got the answers
It's hard til you die like a dog
You're always ahead of the action
Process all the things you ignore
Step back and begin ascension
Onto the killing floor

Pre Chorus

Chorus

Solo

And then a crack in the sky opened up
And all the innocence fell below
