

Bring Your Lovin' Back Here

Gomez

Say you're the dreamer
And come dream on
Say you believe her
And believe in me So bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here I can't deceive you
Won't you be with me?
I didn't leave you
It's you leaving me 'Cause you're not sure
All your wealth
I wanna see you again So bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here I wanna take you out tonight
Punches would be rolling
Blood, it would be flowing
And I can't fight You're bound to put one in my eye
But this is not about you
This is about me Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here
Bring your lovin' back here Please don't leave me alone again
(Don't leave me alone again)
Please don't leave me alone again
(Don't leave me alone again)
Please don't leave me alone again I just wanna lie low
(Don't leave me alone again)
I just wanna lie low
(Don't leave me alone again)
I just wanna lie low
(Don't leave me alone again)
