Save Me

Edguy

Waiting for a little sign
Seems like to no avail
Strolling down the pavement aimlessly
Waiting for someone
To snatch her bag of memories
How come you call it destiny
When the cross you bear is your only company?Never seen you, I don't even know your name but still I believeThat you are gonna save me somehow I got a notion
Just a little affection on this cold and windy road
Save me from a state of unemotion
Just a little affection on this windy road..Why is it all so confusing?
Why does growing up hurt so bad?
We seek and we get lost
we get found and go again and I don't know what's gonna be...
I won't make any promise I believe[Corus]I don't know if I can I don't know if I should I don't know what is right and what's to come if you would Here I stand in the rain
Here I stand in the cold
I'm reluctant to get another shot in my soul... no
I'm afraid of that hole...[Corus]Save me, save me...
Lonesome road...
