

Curtains Close

Eminem

ssss Shady aftermath

G-Unit! Haha

(Chorus)

Cause we came here to set this party off right let's bounce tonight

And if they don't let us in thru the front we'll come thru the side

Cause I don't ever wanna leave the game without a least sayin' good bye So all my people on the left all my people on the right scream one last time.

Get your ass up for the Doctor One more time Get your ass up for the Doctor come on now, here we go cliffhanger it's another club banger got you hangin on the edge of your seat get on down

Time's up, game's over, you lose i win bout to show these knuckle heads how to do this here oooh yeah, new year next phase begin look who's got you goin crazy again i'm a trend, i set one every time i'm in i go out and just come back in full circle again if you a fad that means it's something that we already had but once your gone you don't come back too bad you're off the map now radar can't even find you we stay on the grind you slip we out grind you you walk around mad you let your anger blind you we walk around just playin the violin behind you enough with all the pissin and moanin, whinin and bitchin sit observe, listen you'll learn if you pay attention why i'm sittin multi-platinum, later 3 diamond worldwide we're on the charts with a bullet and still climbin

(chorus)

When Dr. Dre says "Crunk!" you will get it crunk (get it crunk, crunk, crunk) and when 50 Cent says "Jump!" you will get on one foot and jump! (jump, jump, jump)

Applause is tremendous , we drop you all the senses i don't gotta promote it for you to know that Doc is off the benches we keep the party rockin off the hinges we ain't showin off we're just goin off popular consensus but critics say that Doc is soft, Doc is talk, Doc is all washed up knock it off! Who the fuck is Doc impressin?

Doc is this, Doc is that you got the wrong impression you must be on the cockadock cause Doc left you all guessin so DJ take the needle and just drop it on the record (What?) we gonna have this muthafucka hoppin in a second (uh huh) that's why we always save the best cut last to make the scratch and mix for it like fresh cut glass

We swam with the sharks, wrestled with alligators spoke to an generation of angry teenagers whom if it wasn't for rap to bridge the gap may be raised to be racists who may have never got to see our faces grace the cover of Rollin Stone pages broke down barriers of language and races just call on the caped crusaders and leave it to me and Dre to pass the mic don't need ta play back and forth like the hot potato game or somethin

(Chorus)

50 Cent come on!

Now snap, hands up

you know how we do, we make the club jump everywhere we go it's no secret, everybody know when Dre's involved there's plenty of money involved and plenty honeys involved it's sunny Sundays and palm trees, Cali every day is just another party from The Valleys all the way to the "make my" alleys, let's rally

Hands up for the Grand Finale now raise up out your seat, Dre's about to speak blaze a pound of weed 6 days about the week you can catch me in the studio bangin out the beatsta provide ya with the heat that keep blazin out the speakers so never say never cause Shady Aftermath together along with G-Unit records presents the return of the "The Doc" (O'Shay) no one can do it better we tear that club up and leave without a shred of evidence and a...

(Chorus)

yeah! haha Still Aftermath 2006!
And don't worry bout that Detox Album... it's comin!
We gonna make Dre do it. Ha ha!
50 Cent G-Unit
