

About Love

Gloria Loring

Weâ€™re standing at the water side, weâ€™re lookinâ€™ at the Great Divide
And I know, as sure as Earth may turn, there have to be some bridges we burn

Whatever road we ride upon, whatever side we think weâ€™re on
And in all the treasure we may find thereâ€™s always room for changinâ€™ our mind

So, whatâ€™re we gonna do about love
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about trust
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about faith
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about us
Say, whatâ€™re we gonna do with this hurt
Whatâ€™re we gonna do with these years
Time is a river that flows with the force of our tears
Oh, but whatâ€™re we gonna do about love?

Weâ€™ve seen the danger slip away, we made it through another day
And I know, no matter what may fall, weâ€™ll find a way to get through it all
And in the race that we must run, we set our compass toward the sun
Though intentions are true, how easily they slip from our view

So, whatâ€™re we gonna do about love
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about trust
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about faith
Whatâ€™re we gonna do about us
Say, whatâ€™re we gonna do with this hurt
Whatâ€™re we gonna do with these years
Time is a river that flows with the force of our tears
Oh, but whatâ€™re we gonna do about love?

Lyrics by Gloria Loring and Lori Barth
Song written by Gloria Loring, Lori Barth and Bob Leatherbarrow
c. Only Silk Music/Bug Music

Lyrics submitted by Gloria Loring.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>