Two Minus One

Charlie Louvin

Take love from a boy take love from a girl and you might as well take away the world
We're living to love and dissociety two minus one equals one one lonesome me
Wrapped in your arms gave me strenght of a king
And all of the warm things two arms can bring
Two equals two then one should leave
That makes two minus one equal one one lonesome me
[guitar]
With your lips on mine I had reason to live
And knowing your wants makes me willing to give
But I never dreamed you'd want to be free
Now two minus one equals one one lonesome me
Wrapped in your arms...
