Don't Go

Schiller

The sun is up, the road is clear, reaching for you,
Youre while awake, confess to sleep,
But I know whats on your mind, whats in your head,
Just dont come back for me to save you.
Go, if you want, cause Ill be fine here on my own,
Take it on if you have to, I can make my own new hope.
Go
Youre riding high and whos to blame,
You lose control and there is howling from far away,
Your solitude suits you well, you said
Youll see how it becomes to live in hell
Go, if you want to, cause Ill be fine here on my own,Take it on if you have to, cause I can make my own new hope.
Go, if you want to, cause Ill be fine here on my own,
Just take it on if you have to, cause I can make my own new hope.
Go, if you want to, cause Ill be fine here on my own,
Take it on if you have to, cause I can make my own new hope.
Just go ohh
Just go ohh
Just take it on if you need to, cause I can make my own new hope
Just go ohh
Just go ohh
