

How Beautiful You Are

Frankie J

When I look at you baby
I see a shining star
But when you look in the mirror girl
You don't know who you are You give yourself no credit
For all the things you've done
Just look at the blessings
And all you've got Chorus:
You're beautiful and wonderful
Incredible and vibrant
Like a miracle so spiritual
Like an angel in disguise The way you love is parable
It physically excites me
I can just go on and on of you
Of how beautiful you are Well last night I heard you speak
So silent in your sleep
Spilling all your worries on your pillow girl
I can even feel you wink Sweet child those tears are wasting Just wipe them all away
Replace them with my kisses
As you gone here me say Chorus:
You're beautiful and wonderful
Incredible and vibrant
Like a miracle so spiritual
Like an angel in disguise The way you love is parable
It physically excites me
I can just go on and on of you
Of how beautiful you are I just don't understand all
The silly worries on your mind
To me they're just a waste of time
Cuz you look stoned and pale
Look how beautiful Chorus:
You're beautiful and wonderful
Incredible and vibrant
Like a miracle so spiritual
Like an angel in disguise The way you love is parable
It physically excites me
I can just go on and on of you
Of how beautiful you are
