

Trivial Honesty

Arctic Death

so many days are spent pacing away to me
oh it's an accident?
trivial honestylay your pulses on the road lay your wisdom on the roads split the difference darling stack promises two by two may i keep this thing away from you?green the hall
my original weekend
the order was tall
the closets were speaking i bend under the weight of all this fate and paint my face my heart is deadoh split the difference darling
may i keep this thing away from you?i feel so jaded i feel so jaded
i feel so wasted
i'm much older, i'm so much olderby the way i brought you into this (x3) by the way i brought you inside.
