

Lucky

Kat Edmonson

Happiness
Feels like this;
Your heart upon your sleeve.
There's a place,
In time and space,
We can all be free. So meet me at the rainbow's end.
We don't even have to pretend
That we know what it is we're looking for,
We're looking for. Life is just a dream...
Lucky you;
Lucky, lucky me! Life is just a dream
Lucky you;
Lucky, lucky me! Have you found
Higher ground
Or are you lost at sea?
Do you know
Where you go
Is where I want to be. So cast your troubles into the sky;
They can be the stars in our eyes
And we can count them all another day,
From far away. Life is just a dream...
Lucky you;
Lucky, lucky me! Life is just a dream...
Lucky, lucky me!
