STRANGERLife is narrow cage, my dear
Word is glowing fire/ember, you get burn
Time is ointment but it's unfaithful/painful
Road, mark, lies are in vain
And unfortunately the heart is broken
With the pain, hopefully your life will go onEven so, I have many reasons to wake up for a new day, to smile forever, to hold on tight to life, by insist.I have made mistakes on purpose, I have many regrets.
I have cheated on purpose but I have deceived a lot.
This is the story/situation, stranger.
If you have troubles, same here/so do I.Life is narrow cage, my dear
Word is glowing fire/ember, you get burn
Time is ointment but it's futile.
Road, mark, lies are in vain
And unfortunately the heart is broken
With the pain, hopefully your life will go onEven so, I have many reasons to wake up for a new day, to smile forever, to hold on tight to life, by insist.I have made mistakes on purpose, I have many regrets.
I have cheated on purpose but I have deceived a lot.
This is the story/situation, stranger.
If you have troubles, same here as well/so do I.
If you have troubles, same here as well/so do I.Not very good translation but I did my best :)
