I Keep Hoping

Foreigner

As I gather my thoughts with the pieces of my heart
Tell me, how long is forever
I'm not afraid and I won't be torn apart
We've had our time together
Now I make my new beginnings
I'll start again at any cost
I've learned a lot from losing you
But I've got nothing if I'm lost
And I keep hoping and I still believe in love
If I wait long enough, I know I'll be strong enough
Yeah, I keep hoping, I believe in faith and trust
I'm gonna find a way there are better days still ahead of us
I keep hoping
Now this candle burns low it won't last through the night
But I've found peace and I know it's all right
I try to understand what's been missing in my life
Between the darkness and the daylight
No I'm not expecting miracles
I've got my doubts like any other one
I've learned a lot from losing you
But I've got nothing if I'm lost
And I keep hoping, I still believe in love
If I wait long enough, I know I'll be strong enough
And I keep hoping, I believe in faith and trust
There'll be better days, they're on their way now
I keep hoping, I keep hoping
I keep hoping and praying baby, ooh
And I still believe in love
I keep hoping baby, ooh
I'm gonna find a way
I keep hoping baby
There are better days, ooh, better days
I keep hoping, hoping and praying
And I still believe in love
I keep hoping, I keep hoping, hey hey hey
I keep hoping
