

Nothing

God Lives Underwater

Sitting here thinking about what
What everything means to me
Do I want it all?
Can I take it all? Sitting here thinking about you
Do I need this jealousy?
What do you mean to me?
What do you really mean to me? I know what you're feeling
Here I am
I'll regret what I've been to you
And there's nothing I can do Sitting here thinking about why
I sometimes scare myself
I'm so high above
I rose so high above Sitting here thinking about how
You want me on the ground
You can't bring me down
I'm never ever coming down I know what you're feeling
Here I am
I'll regret what I've been to you
And there's nothing I can do Sitting here thinking about how How I'm giving in
I should be giving up
I should have given up Sitting here thinking about why
I'm jumping in again
More than a friend again
More towards the end again I know what you're feeling
Here I am
I'll regret what I've been to you
And there's nothing I can do I know what you're feeling
Here I am
I'll regret what I've been to you
And there's nothing I can do
